D. N. Bose; Managing Director, the Chittaranjan College Mills Ltd., one of the leading industrial concerns in East Pakistan having its Mills at Godenail, Narayan-ganj, and its place of business at 74, Faras-ganj Road, Dacca; with this concern, the name of Mr. D. N. Bose is intimately associated and will ever be remembered in the industrial realm in East Pakistan; in his youth, Mr. Bose keenly felt an irresistible urge for trade and industry and conceived the idea of founding one well equipped and up-to-date Cotton Textile Mill in Bengal; while still in his teens, he proceeded to Ahmedabad and placed himself along with some of his associates under the care of a Master Technologist, Mr. Keshavalal Mehta for training in Textile Technology; this Gujrati Brahmin had all the traits of a "guru" (preceptor) of ancient India and his wards were immensely benefited from his teaching and were inspired and impressed by the nobleness of his personality; on his return to his province, Mr. Bose came into intimate contact with some prominent business establishments in Calcutta where he received practical training in business organisation and management; at last, he started a business of his own in Clive Street, Calcutta; re-organised to a great success the whole management of a small private limited concern, formerly floated by some of his friends who failed to make it a success, the Chittaranjan Cotton Mills Ltd., registered in 1929; struggling against all odds, developed it to have 20,000 Spindles and 250 Power-looms equipped with its own Power Plant and up-to-date Humidification and air conditioning arrangements making it one of the most modern of Mills; attached to the Mills is also a workshop in which important machinery and machine parts are manufactured for use in the Mill; the Company's authorised Capital has also been raised from Rs. 15 lacs to Rs. 50 lacs and issued subscribed Capital to Rs. 30 lacs; all these achievements go to bear out that Mr. Bose is essentially a self-made man; is President of the East Bengal Cotton Millowners' Association; was also President of the Bengal Millowners' Association in undivided India in 1947; is also a lover of sports and literature; is associated with many athletics and cultural organisations.
